

A WORD FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Dear Readers,

Starting with the current issue, Nuclear Technology & Radiation Protection will be published as a quarterly. As previously announced, from now on, the journal will number four issues per volume, to be published in March, June, September, and December. We also wish to inform You that, in accordance with the ISI Web of Knowledge regulations, hereafter, our journal is to be annotated in references by the abbreviation Nucl Technol Radiat, instead of the designation used so far.

Yours truly,
