

ERRATUM

Editorial Board of the Nuclear Technology & Radiation Protection journal regrets to inform the audience of the journal that the authors of the paper

FIRST STEPS IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF A POSSIBLE MEASUREMENT METHOD TO ESTIMATE
THE RADON CONCENTRATION AS AN INDICATOR OF THE INDOOR AIR QUALITY

by

Franz Anton ROSSLER, Tahar AZZAM JAI, Volker GRIMM, Hans HINGMANN, Tina OROVWIGHOSE, Nina JACH, and Joachim BRECKOW

printed in the issue Vol. 29 (2014), Suppl., pp. S52-S58, had made some mistakes concerning the list of authors and their contributions. It should be as follows:

Franz Anton ROSSLER, Tahar AZZAM JAI, Volker GRIMM, Hans HINGMANN, Tina OROVWIGHOSE, Nina JACH, Thomas SCHANZE, and Joachim BRECKOW

AUTHOR CONTRIBUTIONS

The theory and the method was developed by F. A. Roessler, T. Azzam Jai, V. Grimm, H. Hingmann, T. Schanze, and J. Breckow. The experiments were made by F. A. Roessler, T. Orovwighose, and N. Jach. All authors analysed and discussed the results. The manuscript was written and the figures were prepared by F. A. Roessler.

Editorial Board offers an apology for this mistake to Dr. Thomas Schanze and the readers of the Nuclear Technology & Radiation Protection journal.
